Holstein with Oddly Correct Coffee and Cacao nibs, 5.64% ABV

Holstein is our milk stout with English malts, notes of chocolate and roasted barley, and a chewy mouth-feel with a velvety finish. This batch features Oddly Correct El Salvador roast coffee and Tanzania cacao.

Available To-Go in 16oz can for $6 and On Tap.

Clouds DIPA, 8.2% ABV

Our Northeast style double IPA with pilsner malt, a blend of specialty malts, wheat, oats, and an ever-changing cast of hops. An exceptionally soft and rich mouthfeel give way to intense aroma and flavors from double dry hopping. This batch features El Dorado, mosaic and simcoe hops.

Available To-Go in 22oz bottle for $14 and On Tap.

Rockhill & Locust with Oddly Correct Coffee, 3.6% ABV

This English Mild is our first coffee and beer collaboration with our friends from Oddly Correct Coffee Roasters in Midtown KC. Oddly Correct chose their Kenyan Gicherori Peaberry coffee for Kenya's previous ties to England as a British territory. The coffee adds a subtle citrus and berry brightness to the classic caramel, nutty, chocolate profile of this ale.

Available To-Go in 16oz can for $5 and On Tap.

Counterculture IPA, 6.8% ABV

Our Northeast style IPA brewed with pale malts, wheat, oats and an ever-changing cast of hops. This batch features double dry hopping, a soft mouthfeel, smooth bitterness, and a hazy-golden malt profile.

Available On Tap only.

Vacation Island – 3 Variants, 4% ABV

Our session sour ale features aromas and flavors from your favorite vacation beverages. Brewed with pilsner malt, wheat malt, oats and pink Himalayan sea salt. Tart, refreshing, and highly drinkable!

Mimosa, 4%

This variant is based on the popular mimosa brunch cocktail, since vacations can be a nice brunch on the weekend. This features Cara-Cara orange zest and juice.

Available To-Go in 22oz bottle for $10 and On Tap.

Mai Tai, 4%

This variant pays tribute to the well-known tiki drink, the Mai Tai. You will recognize black cherries, pineapple, oranges, guava, passion fruit, and limes.

Available To-Go in 22oz bottle for $10 and On Tap.

Margarita, 4%

We had the best margarita in the Rivera Maya region of Mexico. That beverage is the inspiration for this batch. A very specific amount of juice and zest from lemons and limes compliment the tart and salty base of the beer.

Available On Tap only.
